Survey of ATP Applicants 2002

Nonawardees

Nov. 4 2003
Introduction

We are conducting this survey to help assess our award application process and understand the factors that led to your decision to apply to the program.

We consider all data you give us to be confidential. Westat, an independent research firm in Rockville, Maryland, is collecting the data for us; they are strictly required to protect the confidentiality of all the information collected.

GROUP 1
Special instruction for applicants who submitted a single proposal, but went through a resubmission process:

Many of the questions in the survey ask about your proposed ATP project. Our records show that you resubmitted your proposal after receiving initial feedback from ATP. As you answer the survey questions, please consider the project as it was represented in your final proposal to ATP.

GROUP 2
Special instruction for applicants who submitted multiple unique proposals (none awarded; no resubmissions):

Many of the questions in the survey ask about your proposed ATP project. Our records show that you submitted more than one unique proposal within the 2002 competition year. The titles of these proposals are shown below. Please indicate the proposed project for which you prefer to respond. We ask that you base your responses to the survey questions only on that proposed project.

○ [proposal title]
○ [proposal title]

GROUP 3
Special instruction for applicants who submitted multiple unique proposals (none awarded; at least one resubmission):

Many of the questions in the survey ask about your proposed ATP project. Our records show that you submitted more than one unique proposal within the 2002 competition year. The titles of these proposals are shown below. Please indicate the proposed project for which you prefer to respond. We ask that you base your responses to the survey questions only on that proposed project. Also, if your chosen proposal was resubmitted after receiving initial feedback from ATP, please answer the survey questions considering the project as it was represented in your final proposal to ATP.

○ [proposal title] [PRESENT ONLY FINAL TITLE OF A RESUBMISSION]

GROUP 5

Special instruction for applicants who submitted multiple unique proposals (one awarded, which was a resubmission):

Many of the questions in the survey ask about your proposed ATP project. Our records show that you submitted more than one unique proposal within the 2002 competition year. The title of the proposal which was awarded funding is shown below. Our records also show that you resubmitted this proposal after receiving initial feedback from ATP. As you answer the survey questions, please consider the project as it was represented in your final proposal to ATP.

Overview

This page provides information about:  (each of these bullets will be bookmarked to the relevant section below)

• What kinds of questions you’ll be asked
• How to navigate through the survey
• When are your answers saved
• How to clear your answers
• How to print the survey and/or your responses
• The three ways to leave the survey: Exit, Timeout, and Submit
• Where you can get help if you have additional questions

What kinds of question will you be asked?

There are six sections to the survey:

I. Reasons for Applying to ATP
II. Comparing Your Proposed ATP Project to a Typical R&D Project
III. Other Characteristics of Your Proposed ATP Project
IV. Proposal Preparation and Review
V. Your Company’s Funding for the Line of Research
VI. About Your Company

How to navigate through the survey

Each page of the survey has two buttons that allow you move forward and backward through the pages of the survey. They are the “Previous Page” and “Next Page” buttons. On most pages, these buttons appear at both the top and the button of the page. You can change your responses as often as you like, and you can revisit sections of the survey as often as you like.

When are your answers saved?

Your answers are saved each time you move to a new page, go back to an earlier page, or exit the survey by clicking on “Save & Exit”. If you click on the X in your browser window to exit the survey, your responses on the current page will not be saved. If you need to leave the survey before you have completed it, always click on the “Save & Exit” button that appears on each page of the survey.
How to clear your answers
Each question has a question number printed in blue to accompany it. You can click on the question number to clear your answer.

The three ways to leave the survey: Exit, Timeout, and Submit

Exit
You do not have to complete the survey in one sitting. If you wish to exit the survey to return at a later time, all you have to do is click on the “Save & Exit” button and all your responses will be saved. However, your survey will not be considered complete until you “submit” it (see Submit section below).

Timeout
After 25 minutes of inactivity (that is, you haven’t interacted with the survey in 25 minutes), you will be given a “timeout” warning. After you get this warning, you’ll have 5 minutes to resume activity or you will be timed out. If you are timed out, new or changed responses to the questions on your current page will not be saved.

Submit
After you have navigated through the last section of the survey, you will be taken to a Finish page. If you have left any questions blank, you will be notified of this and you will be given the opportunity to go back and fill in missing answers. If you are satisfied that you are done with the survey, you will be instructed to click on the “Submit Survey” button, and this will complete your participation. Once you have clicked on this button, your survey is considered complete and you will not be able to access the survey online again.

How to print the survey and/or your responses
There are two ways to print the survey and/or your responses. To print the entire survey, including any answers you might have already entered, click on the “Print” button which appears at both the top and the button of most pages. To print just the page you are on, please use your browser’s print button.

Where you can get help if you have additional questions
If you have any questions, please email Jeffrey Kerwin, the Westat study manager, at xxxxxxxx@westat.com. You can also call him toll-free at 1-888-xxx-xxxx.
Each section heading corresponds to a single page within the web survey

SECTION HEADING: Reasons for Applying to ATP

For each question in the survey, mark the selection that best represents your view.

1. Below are several reasons why a company might apply to ATP for funding. Please tell us how important each reason was in your decision to apply to ATP:

1a. Internal company funding is not available.

SECTION HEADING: Comparing Your Proposed ATP Project to a Typical R&D Project

2. We would like to know how the project you proposed to ATP compares to a typical R&D project at your company.

First, think about technical risk.

2a. From 0 to 100%, what would you say is the approximate probability that your proposed ATP project could fully achieve its technical goals? (Try to answer based on how you thought about your project when you proposed it to ATP).

_______ %

2b. What is the approximate probability that a typical R&D project at your company could fully achieve its technical goals?

Now consider the expected impact of your proposed ATP project on your company.

2c. Approximately how many years after the start of the project could you expect results to first have an impact on company revenue? (Try to answer based on how you thought about your project when you proposed it to ATP).

_______ years
2d. Think of the most optimistic estimate for company revenue that could result from your proposed ATP project once the impact on revenue begins.

How much annual company revenue might result from this project.....

Two years after the initial revenue impact? (Check one)

- Less than $1 million .............................................. 1
- $1 million to less than $3 million ............................ 2
- $3 million to less than $5 million ............................ 3
- $5 million to less than $10 million ........................... 4
- $10 million to less than $20 million ........................ 5
- $20 million to less than $30 million ......................... 6
- $30 million to less than $50 million ......................... 7
- $50 million to less than $75 million ......................... 8

SECTION HEADING: Other Characteristics of Your Proposed ATP Project

3a. Aside from revenue impact, would you expect your proposed ATP project to lead to cost savings at your company? (Try to answer based on how you thought about your project when you proposed it to ATP).

    Yes ................................................................. 1
    No................................................................. 2 (Go to Q4A)

3b. What do you think would be the annual cost savings 5 years after the project is completed?

    THOUSAND.................................................. 1
    MILLION....................................................... 2

4a. To what degree was your proposed ATP project based on university research?

    To a large degree................................. 1
    To a moderate degree............................ 2
    To some degree......................................... 3
    Not at all.................................................. 4 (Go to Q4C)

4b. Did your proposed ATP project depend on technology licensed from universities?

    Yes ................................................................. 1
    No................................................................. 2
4c. For your proposed ATP project, how critical was university-based expertise and involvement?

- Very critical ................................................... 1
- Somewhat critical ........................................... 2
- Not too critical ............................................... 3
- Not at all critical ............................................ 4

4d. Was university-based expertise and involvement for your proposed ATP project more critical or less critical than for a typical R&D project at your company?

- More critical................................................... 1
- Less critical ................................................... 2
- About the same ............................................... 3

5. To what extent would you say your proposed ATP project represented a new R&D direction for….

5a. Your company?

- Large extent ................................................... 1
- Moderate extent ............................................. 2
- Small extent .................................................. 3

SECTION HEADING: Your Company’s Funding for the Line of Research

Now we turn to questions about the amount of funding devoted to the specific line of research represented by your proposed ATP project.

26. In the three years before submitting your ATP proposal, approximately how much funding from – internal and external sources - did your company devote to this line of research?

Your best estimate is fine.

We consider internal funding to be money from any part of your company and external funding to be money from outside of your company for specific R&D, either from government sources or other companies.

Funding from internal sources....

$ ___________
None................................................................. 1
Thousand......................................................... 2
Million ............................................................ 3

Funding from external sources....

$ ___________
None................................................................. 1
Thousand......................................................... 2
Million ............................................................ 3

☐ Check here if your company did not devote any money to this line of research in the three years before submitting your ATP proposal.  Then go to #28a.
27. In the three years before submitting your ATP proposal, did your company receive funding from any of the following sources for this line of research?

If so, please tell us how critical it was for your company’s research effort in this area:

28a. Is your company currently carrying out any part of the R&D project that you proposed to ATP?

Yes ................................................................. 1
No.................................................................... 2 (Go to Q29)

28b. Which of the following best describes the scale of effort of the R&D project you are now undertaking?

Larger than proposed to ATP ......................... 1 (Go to Q29)
About the same as proposed .......................... 2 (Go to Q29)
Smaller than proposed ................................. 3

28c. How much of the project proposed to ATP would you say is now being carried out?

Less than 20%,................................................ 1
20% to 39%.................................................... 2
40% to 59%.................................................... 3
60 to 79% ...................................................... 4
80% or more............................................... 5
Now think again about the line of research represented by your proposed ATP project.

29. Since submitting your ATP proposal, approximately how much funding - from internal and external sources - has your company committed to this line of research?

Your best estimate is fine.

We consider internal funding to be money from any part of your company and external funding to be money from outside of your company for specific R&D, either from government sources or other companies.
